

Full Time Human Anatomy Position

Life University is accepting applications for a full time position to teach Histology, Embryology, Neuroanatomy, or Gross Anatomy with primary emphasis on cadaveric dissection. A strong commitment to excellence and innovative teaching is highly desired. The successful candidate must possess a Ph.D. in Anatomy or a related field.

Please submit cover letter, CV, unofficial transcripts of all degree granting institutions attended (official transcripts required upon hiring) and three letters of recommendation to:

Office of Faculty Affairs
Life University
1269 Barclay Circle
Marietta, Georgia 30060
Email to facultyaffairs@life.edu (preferred)
or Fax to 770-792-6040

Only complete application packets will be processed.

Life University is committed to diversity and encourages the development of multicultural perspectives. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer that encourages application from women ethnic minorities and persons with disabilities. Underrepresented minority and bilingual candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Life University is a certified drug-free workplace employer. All applicants being considered for employment are required to submit to substance screening as a condition of employment.