

LIFE UNIVERSITY

Department of Nutrition

FACULTY POSITION: The Department of Nutrition of Life University has an open position at the Assistant/Associate Professor level.

Requirements: Qualified applicants must possess a Ph.D. in Nutrition or related field with RD credential, research and grant writing skills.

Responsibilities: The successful candidate will teach a variety of nutrition courses in graduate and undergraduate programs; such as clinical, community and food science/management. Responsibilities will also involve advisement of nutrition students and conducting research.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with education and experience.

Starting Date: Winter or Spring 2012

To Apply: Please submit a cover letter, CV, unofficial transcripts of all degree-granting institutions attended (official transcripts required upon hiring) and three current, relevant letters of recommendation to:

Office of Faculty Affairs
Life University
1269 Barclay Circle
Marietta, Georgia 30060
Fax to 888-494-6965 or
Email to facultyaffairs@life.edu

Life University is committed to diversity and encourages the development of multicultural perspectives. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer that encourages application from women ethnic minorities and persons with disabilities. Underrepresented minority and bilingual candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Life University is a certified drug-free workplace employer. All applicants being considered for employment are required to submit to substance screening as a condition of employment.