2017–2018 High School Completion Status, Identity & Statement of Educational Purpose

LIFE University

Student's Name _____

Student's ID/ Social Security Number _____

Your 2017–2018 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, Life University may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information the verification coordinator will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the Financial Aid Office at Life University.

High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college in 2017–2018:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
- High School Completion Abroad: A copy of a "secondary school leaving certificate" through the appropriate central government agency of the country where the secondary education was completed.

Identity

The student must appear in person at Life University to verify his or her identity by presenting:

- A valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport.

  Life University will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated with the date it was received and the name of the official at the institution authorized to collect the student's ID.
