Your 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law states that before awarding Federal Student Aid, Life University may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information the verification coordinator will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the Financial Aid Office at Life University.

HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

Provide one of the following documents that indicates your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2021–2022:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a home-schooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a home-schooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home-school setting.
- High School Completion Abroad: A copy of a "secondary school leaving certificate" through the appropriate central government agency of the country where the secondary education was completed.

IDENTITY

You must appear in person at Life University to verify your identity by presenting:

- A valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport.

Life University will maintain a copy of your photo ID that is annotated with the date it was received and the name of the official at the institution authorized to collect your ID.
