Section C: How to Provide Tax Data to the Financial Aid Office

Exceptions made for Unusual Circumstances can be found online at www.LIFE.edu/FinancialAid/Forms.

Use one of the following methods below to provide your 2017 tax information to the Financial Aid Office:

- 1. IRS Data Retrieval Tool: If you and/or your spouse have already used the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to transfer tax information onto your FAFSA, complete the signature section below - no tax documentation is required for you to submit to our office at this time.
- 2. Transfer tax information onto your FAFSA: Go to www.FAFSA.gov, log in to the student's processed 2019-2020 FAFSA, select make "FAFSA Corrections," click on the "Financial Information" tab in the top navigation menu. Answer the questions to determine if you are eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to transfer 2017 IRS tax information onto the FAFSA. You will be asked to input your tax filing status and address to verify your identity. After the tax information is transferred make sure to re-submit the FAFSA. The updated FAFSA should be received by the Financial Aid Office within 3-4 business days.
- 3. Submit a signed copy of your 2017 Federal Tax Return OR a 2017 Tax Return Transcript: Transcripts can be requested online at www.IRS.gov. Click "Get Your Tax Record" and choose "Get Transcript Online" or "Get Transcript by Mail". Make sure you request "IRS Tax Return Transcript" and not the "IRS Tax Account Transcript". You can also call IRS at 800-908-9946 to obtain a tax transcript. For a paper request, complete IRS Form 4506-T or 4506T-EZ. PLEASE NOTE: The IRS will redact much of your personal information from the transcript. Be sure to list the student's full name and Life ID# on the page. Include parent/spouse name if applicable.
- 4. Request a Verification of Non-Filing Letter from the IRS: Required for any student and/or spouse who did not file a tax return in 2017. Verification letters can be requested online at www.IRS.gov/individuals/get-transcript, or by mail using Form 4506-T and checking box 7.

Each person signing below certifies that all the information reported is complete and correct. The student and spouse whose information was reported on the FAFSA must sign and date. WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
