LIFE UNIVERSITY'S REBECCA KOCH PRESENTED SERVING LASTING PURPOSE AWARD

Marietta, Georgia, October 6, 2017 – Life University's (LIFE) International Alumni Association of Life University presented the Serving Lasting Purpose Award to LIFE staff member Rebecca Koch at the Lasting Purpose Recognition Lunch during the 2017 Fall Celebration event on LIFE's campus last week. Koch is the Director of Service Initiatives at LIFE, a role in which she has served for almost 11 years.

Through their professional accomplishments and personal service, nine honorees were selected as representatives of professional success, social contribution and cultural change during the luncheon. Koch, however, was the only non-Doctor of Chiropractic honored during the luncheon.

The Serving Lasting Purpose Award was presented to Koch for her commitment to living a life of Lasting Purpose and serving the Life University community and beyond. Congratulations to Koch on this well deserved honor.

About Life University

Founded in Marietta, Georgia in 1974, Life University is a health sciences institution most known for its chiropractic program, the largest single campus chiropractic program in the world. Life University is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award baccalaureate, master's and Doctor of Chiropractic degrees, and also has programmatic accreditation through the Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE), the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) and the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE). The mission of Life University is to empower students with the education, skills and values necessary for career success and life fulfillment, based on a vitalistic philosophy.
