

List of English-Speaking Countries and Territories Exempt from Proof of English Proficiency Requirement

The following is a list of countries and territories that are listed as having English as their official language. Applicants from these locations are not required to submit proof of English for admission purposes to Life U. The ACCUPLACER (Life U's placement test) will still be required prior to course registration.

American Samoa	Guernsey	Rwanda
Anguilla	Guyana	Saint Helena
Antigua and Barbuda	Ireland	Saint Kitts and Nevis
Australia	Jamaica	Saint Lucia
Bahamas, The	Jersey (Bailiwick of Jersey)	Saint Vincent and the Grenadines
Barbados	Kenya	Saint Maarten
Belize	Kiribati	Seychelles
Bermuda	Lesotho	Sierra Leone
Botswana	Liberia	Singapore
British Virgin Islands	Malawi	Solomon Islands
Cameroon	Malta	South Africa
Canada (Except Quebec)	Marshall Island's	Swaziland
Cayman Islands	Mauritius	Tanzania
Christmas Islands	Micronesia, Federated States of	Tonga
Cook Islands	Montserrat	Trinidad and Tobago
Dominica	Namibia	Turks and Caicos Islands
Falkland Islands (Isles Malvinas)	New Zealand	Uganda
Fiji	Nigeria	United Kingdom
Gambia, The	Norfolk Island	Vanuatu
Ghana	Northern Mariana Islands	Virgin Islands
Gibraltar	Palau	Zambia
Grenada	Philippines, The	Zimbabwe
Guam	Pitcairn Islands	