SPONSOR LETTER FOR F-1 VISA HOLDER STUDENT

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires international students to show the University evidence of adequate financial resources to provide for at least one year of full-time education and living expenses as estimated below. In addition to this form, you are required to submit a proof of funding, such as a financial statement, a standard bank letter on the letterhead of your or your sponsor’s name/s that shows you or your sponsor/s have established sufficient funds in USD to support your education in the United States. Both documents must be submitted to LIFE University to receive an I-20/Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status.

*Figures are based on the traditional US school year which is three academic quarters (fall, winter and spring), spanning nine months (October through June). If a student decides to enroll in four academic quarters, the figures will be higher.

 Based on 24 hours for Chiropractic, 16 hours for Undergraduate and 14 hours for graduate programs for a quarter.

20% tuition assistance for F-1 students is included.

*The final total amount is rounded.

Please see the following if you would like to bring your immediate family: $6,200 for spouse; $9,800 for spouse and child; $13,400 for spouse and two children; $3,600 for no spouse and one child; $7,200 for no spouse and two children.
