Prior to arriving on campus, you must self-certify that you are able to come to campus by answering the following questions:

Do I have a fever of 100.4°F (CDC Guidelines) or more?

YES: Do not come to campus.

AND ALSO: Contact your primary care provider and/or the Georgia Department of Public Health at (404) 657-2700 for further direction.

NO: Am I currently experiencing 2 or more of the following?

- Difficulty breathing or shortness of breath
- Cough
- New loss of smell and/or taste
- Myalgia (muscle pain) and/or chills

YES: You may come to campus.

BUT ALSO: We recommend you contact your primary care provider and/or the Georgia Department of Public Health at (404) 657-2700 for further direction.

NO: You may come to campus.
Prior to arriving on campus, you must self-certify that you are able to come to campus by answering the following questions:

Have I had direct exposure (as defined by the CDC) with a confirmed case of COVID-19 in the last 14 days?
- NO
  - You may come to campus.
- YES
  - Do I have a fever of 100.4°F or greater and/or other relevant symptoms?
    - NO
      - You may come to campus and no further action is necessary.
    - YES
      - Do not come to campus and follow the instructions for self-isolation.
      - Have you been tested for Covid-19?
        - NO
          - You may return to campus once you’ve gone 72 consecutive hours without a fever of over 100.4°F.
        - YES
          - TEST RESULT NEGATIVE
            - You may return to campus.
          - TEST RESULT POSITIVE
            - Do not return to campus and please contact the Dean of Students (students) or Human Resources (employees) for more information.