

Life University Pediatric and Prenatal Certification Program by Dr. Claudia Anrig

Instructor: Mary Unger-Boyd, DC, DICS, CACCP

Course Title: Chiropractic Craniopathy – Basic Principles

4 Hour Virtual Course

Course Description

This course will cover the anatomy/physiology of the cranial system and the dural-meningeal system. Included is basic understanding of cranial motion along with treatment guidelines for patient management

Hour 1 – History of chiropractic Craniopathy as well as the function of the cranial, dural meningeal system and function of CSF

Hour 2 – Cranial motion patterns of the individual vault bones and the sphenobasilar synchondrosis. Including morphology and growth/development of the cranium

Hour 3 – Introduction to a basic infant cranial exam.

Hour 4 – Principles of treatment, benefits, indications & contraindications. Guidelines for patient management